CRITERIA FOR HISTORICAL DESIGNATION

To qualify for inclusion on the City of Dade City Historical Register, a building, district, cemetery, or site must meet at least two of the following requirements:

- 1.A. Associated with events which are significant to the history of Dade City.
- 1.B. Associated with the life of some person significant in local history.
- 1.C. Embodies distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction or has aesthetic values.
- 1.D. Yielded or is likely to yield information important to local history or prehistory.
- 1.E. Fifty years old or more, constructed of materials not now used, and is of significance in the history and development of the community or area.
- 1.F. Associated in memory with lives of the early settlers, was useful to the community in its formative years, and has largely retained its original design.
- 1.G. Where veterans of America's wars are buried and where annually—preferably on Memorial Day—public tribute is paid in their memory.
- 1.H. Remains of pioneers who struggled to achieve permanency in a community despite apparently insurmountable obstacles, including fighting off Indians.
- 1.J. Yielded artifacts to indicate Indian habitation.

The City of Dade City Register of Historic Resources shall also include the following:

- 2.A. Surviving structures constructed before 1887.
- 2.B. Structures constructed before 1918 which have not been remodeled so extensively as to destroy their original exterior appearance.
- 2.C. Structures that exemplify a particular style of architecture to a notable degree.
- 2.D. Cemeteries with burials prior to 1918.
- 2.E. All identifiable Native American sites.
- 2.F. Sites of towns or villages established before 1918.
- 2.G. Sites of houses or farms established before 1865.
- 2.H. Sites associated with the Seminole Wars.
- 2.I. Museums and groups of historical buildings which have been removed from their original sites.
- 2.J. Natural landmarks, including trees, which have been recognized for a period of 50 years or more.
- 2.K. Structures which have become recognized as local landmarks.
